The screenshot displays the FlipSetter Collaborate interface. At the top, there's a toolbar with various icons for navigation and editing, including a zoom control set to 0%. Below the toolbar, the main area is a whiteboard with a blue grid background. A blue line is drawn on the grid, representing a linear function. The equation $y = mx$ is written in the top right corner. Two points are marked on the line: $(2, 2)$ and $(10, 7)$. A slope triangle is drawn between these points, with the vertical side labeled $7 - 2$ and the horizontal side labeled $10 - 2$. Below the slope triangle, the formula $\sqrt{(y_2 - y_1)^2}$ is written. On the left side of the whiteboard, there's a chat window with several messages from Nick Fury, all dated 19 days ago or a day ago. On the right side, there's a video call grid showing several participants: Alicia, Brandon Gomez, Frederick, Jessie J., Gary Elves, Armando, Anita Patel, Gerald, Steven Balmer, and Dr. Faison.
